

B.SC. DEGREE EXAMINATION, APRIL 2018
III YEAR - VI SEMESTER
Core Elective - Paper III - HUMAN DEVELOPMENT II

Time : 3 Hours

Max.marks :75

Section A ( $10 \times 2 = 20marks$ )

Answer any TEN questions

1. List any 4 developmental tasks of early adulthood.
2. What is empty nest syndrome?
3. How is the personality of the bride and bridegroom important for marriage?
4. List out the stages of family life cycle.
5. Mention the characteristics of gifted children.
6. What are the causes of speech defects?
7. List the signs and symptoms of pregnancy.
8. How are twins formed?
9. Write down the psychological changes during old age?
10. How do the aged maintain their economic status after retirement?
11. Mention the types of birth.
12. Identify the functions of a family.

Section B ( $5 \times 5 = 25marks$ )

Answer any FIVE questions

13. Discuss on the characteristics of early adulthood.
14. What are the effects of maternal deprivation on children?
15. Describe the stages of prenatal development?
16. Mention the characteristics of visually impaired children.
17. Account for the norms of a small family.
18. Give an account on test tube babies.
19. Why is family considered as a basic social institution?

Section C ( $3 \times 10 = 30marks$ )

Answer any THREE questions

20. Examine the social and vocational adjustments of adulthood.
21. Discuss in detail the different critical family situations and its effects on children.
22. Describe in detail about the care to be taken during pregnancy.
23. How would you identify hearing impaired children? What remedial measures would you suggest?
24. Explain the place of aged in Indian society.