

B.Sc DEGREE EXAMINATION, APRIL 2019
II Year IV Semester
Community Nutrition

Time : 3 Hours

Max.marks :75

Section A ( $10 \times 2 = 20$ ) Marks

Answer any TEN questions

1. Define Health.
2. Define Nutrition.
3. Define Nutritional status.
4. Give two uses of growth chart.
5. What are visual aids? Give two examples.
6. List two functions of NIN.
7. Give the importance of weaning.
8. Define the term weaning.
9. Define immunisation.
10. Draw the vicious cycle of malnutrition.
11. Give the activities of CARE.
12. What is Food Balance Sheet? When it is used?

Section B ( $5 \times 5 = 25$ ) Marks

Answer any FIVE questions

13. Explain the causes of malnutrition in India.
14. Explain the anthropometric methods needed to assess the community.
15. Describe the various nutrition intervention schemes.
16. Discuss on the planning, formulating and preparing weaning foods.
17. Write the immunisation Schedule and give its importance.
18. Enumerate on the recent advances in community nutrition research.
19. Explain the biochemical assessment used to assess various disease.

Section C ( $3 \times 10 = 30$ ) Marks

Answer any THREE questions

20. Elaborate on the role of nutrition and health in national development.
21. Discuss on the different types of diet surveys.
22. Explain the role of ICMR and WHO in combating malnutrition.
23. Differentiate between breast feeding and bottle feeding. Explain the hazards of bottle feeding.
24. Describe the relationship between nutrition and infection.

B.Sc DEGREE EXAMINATION, APRIL 2019
II Year IV Semester
Community Nutrition

Time : 3 Hours

Max.marks :75

Section A ( $10 \times 2 = 20$ ) Marks

Answer any TEN questions

1. Define Health.
2. Define Nutrition.
3. Define Nutritional status.
4. Give two uses of growth chart.
5. What are visual aids? Give two examples.
6. List two functions of NIN.
7. Give the importance of weaning.
8. Define the term weaning.
9. Define immunisation.
10. Draw the vicious cycle of malnutrition.
11. Give the activities of CARE.
12. What is Food Balance Sheet? When it is used?

Section B ( $5 \times 5 = 25$ ) Marks

Answer any FIVE questions

13. Explain the causes of malnutrition in India.
14. Explain the anthropometric methods needed to assess the community.
15. Describe the various nutrition intervention schemes.
16. Discuss on the planning, formulating and preparing weaning foods.
17. Write the immunisation Schedule and give its importance.
18. Enumerate on the recent advances in community nutrition research.
19. Explain the biochemical assessment used to assess various disease.

Section C ( $3 \times 10 = 30$ ) Marks

Answer any THREE questions

20. Elaborate on the role of nutrition and health in national development.
21. Discuss on the different types of diet surveys.
22. Explain the role of ICMR and WHO in combating malnutrition.
23. Differentiate between breast feeding and bottle feeding. Explain the hazards of bottle feeding.
24. Describe the relationship between nutrition and infection.